Lansing Catholic High School as an educational institution inspired by Gospel values and by the spirit and tradition of Saint John Paul the Great, is dedicated to the education of young men and women in an environment that fosters Christian attitudes of dignity and respect for others, as well as to the free exchange of ideas and opinions. The school's digital platforms aim to extend that exchange beyond the walls of the classroom, to a space online where all perspectives are welcome. It is our hope that all visitors contribute their views in a respectful way and that no one person or group dominates the conversation.

In order to maintain an open but still welcoming forum for debate, we ask that visitors regulate themselves by the rules below. Should the school determine that a comment violates these rules, the comment will be deleted and the individual may be prevented from commenting in the future. Comments will not be removed simply because they express opinions in disagreement with Lansing Catholic High School.

Comments that may be deleted include those that contain:

- Vulgar, abusive, hateful language
- Graphic, obscene, explicit, or racial comments or submissions
- Personal attacks/inflammatory remarks against a person or group
- Content/comments that are off topic
- Spam
- Links to sites that contain offensive material or attack a person
